

2020 TOUR OF CHAMPIONS ACCREDITATION PROGRAM

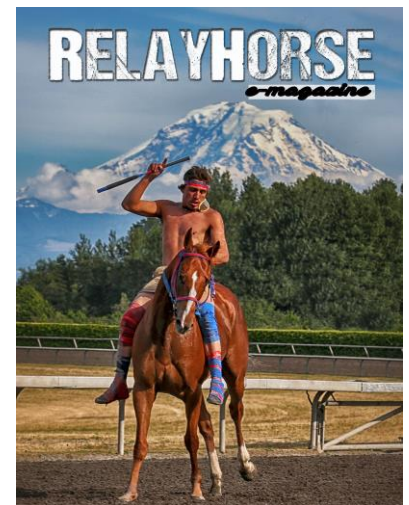

The purpose of the HNIRC Accredited Indian Relay Race Program is to incorporate established races and newly developed relay races into a program that leads to a year end championship. The Tour of Champions consists of a series of Indian relay races across the United States and Canada that ends with the Championship of Champions in Walla Walla, Washington.

Why accredit your race?

- Publicity for your race....
  - HNIRC has a huge following! Over 900,000 people reached per month on social media alone. Let us help promote your races via our own RELAYHORSE eMAGAZINE, website, social media, posters, advertising and race schedule that reaches both Indian relay teams and lots of fans.
- Custom poster for your race....
  - HNIRC graphics department creates a professional poster specifically for your relay race. This poster will be circulated digitally to our followers. You will be provided with a digital copy that can be printed to be used in your advertising.
- Your winning Indian relay team joins the elite....
  - The winning Indian relay team from each accredited race has entry fee paid into the Championship of Champions
  - Will have a feature story in RELAYHORSE eMAGAZINE and news releases
  - Will be on Champion Row at Championship of Champions
  - Will be in the commemorative program at Championship of Champions

HNIRC was viewed by and interacted with over 11 million people in 2019
